Experience

Developer, Web Designer, Seo | Freelance September 2021 - Now

- He started as a tutor, giving classes to students in Peru with the purpose of helping them pass their exams in a reduced period of time. Then, he got involved in projects with WordPress, creating several websites for various clients and applying UX-UI design principles. Also of note was a project done for a client in Paraguay, where he was tasked with designing a prototype of a mobile application that allows the integration of cryptocurrencies with local soccer teams. Finally, he worked on search engine optimization (SEO) for local websites and used Zoho CRM in his work.
